

Joint New Zealand-Australian CRS Workshop

Pharmaceutical rheology - principles and applications

We will introduce the rheology of materials for drug delivery and cover theoretical aspects, current research and participants will learn how to process and interpret rheological data for the development of pharmaceutical dosage forms.

Date: 24 November 2015* 10 am registration and coffee

The D4 – Diagnostic Drug Device Discovery Conference 25 & 26 November, Dunedin*

Venue: Room 713, School of Pharmacy, University of Otago, Dunedin, New Zealand

Keynote Speaker: Assoc. Prof. Stefania Baldursdottir, University of Copenhagen

Invited Speakers: Assoc. Prof. Natalie Medlicott, University of Otago and Assoc. Prof. Patrick Spicer, University of New South Wales, Assoc. Prof. Steve Moratti, University of Otago

Registration: FREE for postgraduate students, $50 university staff and $100 for industry

Please go to www.nzcrs.org.nz. Registration closes on 18th November 2015.

Enquiries: Sharan Bobbala (sharan.bobbala@otago.ac.nz)

Dr Arlene McDowell (arlene.mcdowell@otago.ac.nz)